South Africa’s Keshav dethrones Siraj on ICC chart

Dubai, Nov 15: A new World No.1 bowler has been crowned on the eve of the World Cup 2023 semi-finals in the ICC Men's ODI Bowlers Rankings.

The musical chairs for the No.1 bowler spot in the ICC Men's ODI Payer Rankings continue with a new No.1 crowned for the third time in as many weeks.

The competitiveness of the ICC Men's Cricket World Cup 2023 has made it difficult for bowlers to hold on to their top spot. On November 1, Shaheen Afridi claimed the top spot in the rankings but his reign lasted all of one week after Mohammed Siraj toppled him on November 8, an ICC report said.

Less than a week later, a new No.1 emerged with South Africa's Keshav Maharaj climbing the charts to the summit, with the Proteas spinner rising from No.2 while Siraj moved down a spot from the top.

Since the last update last Wednesday, Maharaj picked up seven wickets in three matches, which included a four-for against New Zealand in Pune.

He was one of the very few bowlers who troubled India, returning figures of 1/30 when the hosts scored 326. In the final group stage game, the left-arm spinner scalped two wickets against Afghanistan.

Siraj, who scalped six wickets in India's last three matches, isn't too far behind Maharaj with only three rating points separating the two. His compatriots Jasprit Bumrah and Kuldeep Yadav occupy two of the three remaining spots in the Top 5.

In the last week of the group stage action, Glenn Maxwell produced one of the greatest ODI innings of all time. His 201 not out off 128 balls while chasing against Afghanistan came against all odds when Australia were struggling at 91/7 while chasing 293.

During the innings, Maxwell battled cramps and spasms of his own but remained unbeaten and pulled off one of the greatest heists in World Cup history.

His stupendous innings has helped him climb a whopping 17 spots in the batting charts and one spot on the all-rounders' rankings.

Mitchell Marsh was among other significant gainers as he racked up 177 not out in Australia's last league stage game against Bangladesh. He too recorded a massive rise in the batting rankings to No.38 (up 11 places).

Shubman Gill continues to lead the way in the batting rankings after dethroning Babar Azam last week. India's batting lynchpins Virat Kohli and Rohit Sharma occupy 4th and 5th spots respectively, with the India skipper rising one spot in the latest update.

Shreyas Iyer and KL Rahul too have made ground after brilliant performances that were capped off with centuries apiece against Netherlands in the final league stage game. Iyer climbed five spots to equal No.13 along with Fakhar Zaman while KL Rahul jumped to 17th from 24th.

Be Still and Get Things Done..!

Something that all religious leaders, prophets and spiritual people always did and do, is to retire to places where they are alone and where they can be still. We see this with Buddha, with Christ and I doubt there's even a single spiritual person who does not do this today, to discover something, which in the din and noise of the world, he or she cannot find.

There once was a farmer who discovered that he had lost his watch in the barn. It was no ordinary watch because it had sentimental value for him. After searching high and low among the hay for a long while; he gave up and enlisted the help of a group of children playing outside the barn.

He promised the children that the child who found it would be rewarded.

Hearing this, the children hurried inside the barn, went through and around the entire stack of hay but still could not find the watch. They made a lot of noise, squealing and shouting as they pulled out all the hay, looked under it, through it and over it but there was no sign of the watch. Just when the farmer was about to give up looking for his watch, a little boy went up to him and asked to be given another chance.

The farmer looked at him and thought, "Why not? After all, this kid looks sincere enough."

"But," said the little fellow, "I want to go in there alone!"

So the farmer sent the little boy back to the barn. After a while the little boy came out with the watch in his hand! The farmer was both happy and surprised and so he asked the boy how he succeeded where the rest had failed. The boy replied, "I did nothing but sit on the ground and listen. In the silence, I heard the ticking of the watch and just looked for it in that direction."

The moral is that in stillness we can do things, which are otherwise impossible.

Allow a few minutes of silence to your mind every day, just for a few moments listen to the world around you. Feel your breath coming in and going out. Listen to your thoughts. See the details of your surroundings. Be at peace with being still.

In this modern world we rush around all day, doing things, talking, emailing, sending and reading messages, clicking from browser tab to the next, one link to the next. This comes at a cost: we lose that time for contemplation, for observing and listening. We lose peace.

Take a moment to be still. Don't think about what you have to do, or what you've done already. Just be in the moment. Be still. Slow down. Be present. Find happiness now, in this moment, instead of waiting for it.

Savor the stillness. It's a treasure, it's free, it's available to us and it can solve so many of our worries and problems. Be still and get things done.!

‘Most of us not born in 1983, our focus on present’

Mumbai, Nov 15: India Captain Rohit Sharma on Tuesday said that his team does not think about history, but focus on the present as it does not make any sense for most of the teammates who weren't even born when India lifted the World Cup for the first time.

“Honestly, I mean look, that's the beauty of this team. Half of the guys were not even born when we won our first World Cup. And then when we won our second World Cup in 2011, half of the guys were not even playing the game ...

“The focus is always on the present. And that, I believe, is a very, very good thing. Going into a tournament like this, from game number one, the focus has always been on what we can achieve today,” he told reporters on the eve of the ICC Men's World Cup semifinal match at Wankhede Stadium here.

Rohit replied to a query whether his teammates think about history when they get into the field or while preparing.

Asked whether the experienced players like himself and Virat Kohli think about history, Rohit said it obviously is in the back of their mind, but most of the time they talk about today and tomorrow.

“No, I think it's very, you know, obviously in the back of your mind, you know what has happened in the past. But what has happened in the past is the past. What you can do today, what you can do tomorrow is what, you know, we usually talk about. So, I don't think there's much debate or much talk about what happened ten years ago or five years ago or the last World Cup as well,” he said.
